DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1 and 2 ,11-14,20-23 drawn to compounds and pharmaceutical compositions of the compounds as given in claim 1, classified in class 546,514 subclass 81.
- II. Claims 3-10, 24-37, drawn to a process of making the compounds , classified in class 546, subclass 81
- III. Claims 15 , 16 and 47 , drawn to a complex composition of the compound according to claim 1 and another therapeutic agent, classified in class 514, 424 and various subclasses.
- IV. Claim17-19, 38-46, drawn to a method treating a mammal , classified in class 514 and various subclasses.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make another and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case β -carboline derivatives are known compound and can be made by other processes.

Art Unit: 1625

Inventions I and IV are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product. See MPEP § 806.05(h). In the instant case There are various drugs on the market that can treat mammals.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Thus the Inventions are Independent and Distinct.

And the Search is burdensome to the PTO.

A telephone call was made to Ms. Sandra Lee on 4/13/06 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made. The examiner was told that Ms. Lee was no-longer with the company.

Art Unit: 1625

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

If applicants elect the compounds group I and if it were to be found to be allowable then the process of making and process of using limited to the scope of the elected group will be rejoined.

Rejoinder:-

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims . Where applicants elects claims directed to the product , and a product claim is subsequently found allowable , withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be rejoined in accordance with the provisions of MPEP § 821.04. Process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the patentable product will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to the final rejection or allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after final rejection are governed by 37 CFR 1.116; amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 CFR 1.312.

In the event of a rejoinder , the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn , and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. thus to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all the criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until an elected product claim is found allowable , an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowed product claim will not be rejoined. See “ Guidance on Treatment of Product and Process Claims in light of In re Ochiai, In re Brouwer and 35 U.S.C. § 103(b),” 1184 O.G. 86 (March 26, 1996). Additionally , in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, Applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution either to maintain dependency on the product or have all the limitations of the product claim.

Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder.
